Transfer of employees of Kendriya Bhandar in New Delhi

5972. SHRI SARADA MOHANTY: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that most of the staff of Kendriya Bhandar have been working at the same place for the last five years in Delhi|New Delhi; if so, what are the reasons therefore;

(b) what are the policies and rules of Government with regard to their transfer;

(c) whether it is a fact that the number of employees of Kendriya Bhandar have not been relieved even after their transfers;

(d) whether it is also a fact that the staff working in Sector IX, R. K. Puram have been working there for a long period and the juniors are being transferred regularly; and

(e) what remedial measures Government propose to take in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) and (b) Kendriya Bhandar is a cooperative society registered under the Delhi Cooperative Societies Act, 1972 and is also governed by the Delhi Shops and Establishments Act, 1954.

The policy and rules of the Govt. of India with regard to transfer of the staff are not applicable to Kendriya Bhaandar. Transfers of staff are made by Kendriya Bhandar, keeping in view the needs of organisational efficiency and suitability of employees to man various posts.

Commuted pension on completion of 12 years

5973. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that in Karnataka and Punjab, the commuted value of pension is restored on completion of 12 years in respect of pensioners; and

(b) if so, the reasons for not extending such benefits to Government of India pensioners?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) The period for restoration of commuted value of pension is 15 years for Central Government pensioners. The State pensions are, however, the concern of the respective State Governments and there need not be uniformity in this regard. The position regarding the commuted value of pension and its restoration in the States of Karnataka and Punjab is being collected.

(b) Does not arise in view of (a) above.

Select list for filing posts in Asstt. Grade

5974. SHRI KAMESHWAR PASWAN: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) what are the details of vacancies in Assistants' Grade in Central Secretariat Services filled through Select List under different quotas fixed for Direct Recruitment, Seniority Quota and Temporary Promotion (Long term) during the Select List years 1985 to 1989, year-wise;

(b) whether it s a fact that to abolish adhocism, Government have dispensed with rule 13(7) of CSS Rules, 1962 under which temporary promotions in the Grade of Assistant were made; and

(c) if so, the extent to which adhocism is minimised and what steps have been taken by Government to regularise the services of Assistants who have been working on adhoc basis for a long time?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) The Assistants' Grade in the Central Secretariat Service is decentralised, and appointments/promotions to it are made cadre-wise, Details of vacancies filled Select List year wise are not centrally maintained. However, the available infomation in respect of Select List years 1987 to 1989 is furnished below:—

SL	Year	Direct Rectt.
	1987	117
..	1988	186
	1989	364
	Seniority	Long Term
	254	580
	314	279
	1460	Nil

(b) Government discontinued the system of long term promotions for filling temporary vacancies from October, 1988, in order to streamline the promotion process.

(c) Adhoc promotions are to be made only as stop gap arrangements pending the availability of qualified candidates/regular promotees. The duration of adhoc promotion does not affect the entitlement for regular promotion does not affect the entitlement for regular promotion and such promotion are to take place against the normal vacancies through the Select List process.

Parity in Pension

5975. SHRI NILOTPAL BASU: Will the PRIME MIISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that parity in pension was extended in certain Government services in respect of pre-1986 retires; and

(b) if so, the reason for not extending such benefit to Railway pensioners?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) and (b) For the purpose of pensionary benefits, all Civilian Central Government employees including Railway employees are treated alike. The benefit of consolidation of pension based on the recommendations of IVth Pay Commission allowed to pre-1986 Civilian Central Govt. pensioners was also extended to Railway pensioners.
